This shipment will move subject to the rules and conditions of the carrier and tariff. All terms printed or stamped hereon the reverse side hereof. Shipper hereby releases the entire shipment to a value not exceeding _____. The carrier's liability for loss and damage will be $0.60 (sixty-cents) per lb. per article unless a greater amount is specified by the shipper. Household items that are not being transported by the Shipper are not the responsibility of the Shipper.

I understand that I can purchase additional coverage from many online venues, my homeowners policy or other venues. I understand that during the need of Loading or Unloading labor I am responsible for providing all proper protections, including, but not limited to: Floor protection, Wall protection, Furniture pads (not household blankets), plastic and other recommended proper packing materials. I have the right to request and Inventory of all my items, I understand that I must request an Inventory at the start of the move, failure to request an Inventory during the need of Load or Unload Labor waives any claims on missing or damaged items. Inventory is considered part of the hourly rate. I agree to remove any cash, guns, jewelry or other high value items. I understand that the Shipper may not Load or transport and flammables or other listed hazardous materials. I agree that any items that I do not want packed will be put in an area designated by me as the "no-pack" area. I understand that it is in my control to have the job proceed in inclement weather. I understand that all glass, art and appliances be properly packed. Shipper is not responsible for boxes not packed by the Shipper or its Agents. I understand that during the Loading or unloading process I am responsible for loading and unloading any motorized equipment. I agree that any person(s) at job location representing myself agree that these terms have been properly communicated. I understand that all terms listed are implied if I fail to sign.

Your Move and your Business are extremely important to us. If at any time during your Move you are not satisfied for any reason, please call our Office at once before the crew leaves so that we may retain your business in the future.
